

your pension our world

eden project

This is to certify that London Pensions Fund Authority is committed to continuous improvement in sustainability by measuring and reducing its carbon footprint and engaging its stakeholders

Valid to 30 June 2021

Steve Malkin
Founder
The Planet Mark

Sir Tim Smit KBE
Co-Founder
The Eden Project

MEASURE

7.4 tCO₂e total carbon footprint

3.0 tCO₂e carbon footprint per employee

We are committed to reducing our carbon emissions yearly so that together, we can all halt climate change

- Reporting Boundary: London office
- Emission sources: Electricity, natural gas, T&D losses, water, waste, business travel
- Reporting Period: 1 Apr 2019 – 31 Mar 2020

ENGAGE

2.4 FTE employees

We engage our employees and wider stakeholders to unlock their talent and knowledge to drive year on year progress in sustainability

COMMUNICATE

We recognise that transparent communication is essential for transformational change and we quantifiably report on

5 SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

We see a world where we all contribute to a thriving planet and are a collective force for good. The Planet Mark enables organisations and their people to positively transform society, the environment and the economy.