

London Pensions Fund Authority

Compliance and Regulation Manager

Competitive salary and benefits

The London Pensions Fund Authority (LPFA), is the largest Local Government Pension (LGPS) provider in London with around £6.5 billion of assets and 135 active employers. LPFA's aim is to deliver LGPS pension services to a high quality and in a cost effective and efficient manner. LPFA is now looking for an exceptional Compliance and Regulation Manager to assist and provide support to the Chief Legal and Compliance Officer in the delivery of the Compliance, Governance and Legal function. You will have an opportunity to join a dynamic and engaged team dedicated to LPFA's success and that of its members and employers.

You will be joining at both an exciting and challenging time for local government and pension schemes with significant changes to working practices, multiple stakeholders and increasing regulatory and societal challenges to manage.

The role will be responsible for the implementation and maintenance of the Compliance Framework which includes developing compliance activities, programmes and policies that provide assurance that LPFA and its outsourced providers adhere to all statutory, regulatory, and constitutional requirements.

As the Compliance and Regulation Manager, you will undertake research relating to compliance and regulation and you will be expected to write performance reports and briefings which will be submitted to LPFA's boards and committees. The role has additional responsibilities which includes ad-hoc legal support to the Chief Legal and Compliance Officer, and providing governance support to the boards and committees in conjunction with the Governance Manager.

Applicants with the following experience are welcome to apply:

Background and experience: You will be an accomplished compliance and regulation professional having worked in a regulated environment, ideally with experience in financial services or the pensions industry. We are looking for candidates who have a compliance and/or legal qualification or working towards completing a relevant qualification, although equivalent experience will also be considered for the role.

You must be proactive, self-motivated team player who has the ability to meet multiple deadlines ensuring expectations are managed throughout. Maintaining excellent working relationships with key stakeholders is an important element of this role and you must demonstrate experience of developing and maintaining effective partnership working with a wide range of internal and external stakeholders. Please note high level of numerical and writing skills and competent in the use MS office software is required for this role.

How to apply: Please send your application to: recruitment@lpfa.org.uk. Applications should take the form of a CV and covering letter (max two pages) setting out your suitability for the role. The deadline for applications is 9 August at 12:00pm. All candidates are also requested to complete an Equality and Diversity Monitoring Form. Personal Data: LPFA has a legitimate interest in processing personal data during the recruitment process and for keeping record of the process. LPFA will treat all personal data in line with their GDPR policies. For more information about LPFA and full candidate pack details please visit our website <https://www.lpfa.org.uk/who-we-are/recruitment>.