

LPFA's Risk Management Statement

As an appointed body responsible for the proper and prudent management of public monies, and the administration of a public sector pension scheme, the LPFA:

- is risk averse in terms of ensuring legal compliance, eradicating all forms of unfair discrimination, maintaining financial integrity and achieving effective delivery of operations; and
- has a greater appetite, in a controlled environment, for risk when pursuing new business development and attempting to maximise investment returns, having regard to its fiduciary duty acting in the long-term best interests of fund stakeholders.
